THE TREASURY ROBBERY.

The Theft Discovered in Time—What Might Have Happened.

One day last week on weighing one of the bags of silver sent from New Orleans to the Treasury Department to be deposited in the new vaults, the side on which the bag was placed so far overbalanced the weight that it was known something was wrong. Examination disclosed that third shot filled the bag, and that the silver had been abstracted. Investigation showed that another bag had been opened, $500 taken out and pieces of lead substituted. The Department officials guarded the secret carefully, but it is now generally known.
The money is shipped in wooden boxes containing two canvas bags, with $1,000 in each bag. The boxes are carefully sealed before they leave the mint for delivery to the express company, and are carefully guarded from that time until their delivery at the Treasury Department. They are, therefore, under surveillance from the time they leave the mint until they are delivered to the agents of the United States Treasurer. The shipments average $500,000 a day, and the silver already placed in the vault amounts to over $20,000,000.
It is believed that only $1,500 was taken. The responsibility for it rests entirely between the express company and the officials at New Orleans who handled those particular boxes. From the fact the seals on the boxes were stamped with silver dollars instead of the Government seal, it is believed that the robbery took place after the money left New Orleans.

TO-NIGHT'S DEMONSTRATION.

A Great Outpouring of the Republicans.

Between 3,000 and 6,000 Republicans are expected to take part in the parade to-night. Calcium lights, fireworks and transparencies will light the line of march. The parade will be headed by 500 bicyclists, under command of Capt. Owen, with George S. Atwater, Charles A. Neale, I. W. Seely and A. P. Smith as aides.

The wheelmen will be divided into four divisions, offered as follows: Benjamin W. Hann, Capt. Menzies, Lieut. J. C. Fremont, Jr., Francis H. Noyes. A squad of mounted policemen will follow. After them the various Republican clubs and State associations of the District and vicinity. The parade will move from City Hall at 8 o'clock and thence to the Capitol, where it will terminate at 10 o'clock. The parade will be headed by 500 bicyclists, under command of Capt. Owen, with George S. Atwater, Charles A. Neale, I. W. Seely and A. P. Smith as aides.

NEARLY COMPLETED.

The Metropolitan Club House Nearly Ready for Occupancy.

The repairs to the Metropolitan Club House at Seventeenth and H streets, made necessary by the recent fire, are about completed. The fire was in the upper portion of the building and destroyed the roof and kitchen principally, although nearly every other part was damaged by water and smoke to an extent that required a thorough renovation of the entire premises. The work was done under the supervision of Mr. Leon DeLoz, the architect, and no pains or money was spared to put the building in first class condition. One of the principal features of the house now is its kitchen, which cannot be expellied anywhere. This work, together with the other plumbing throughout the building, is at the cost to Messrs. Venable & Sullivan. The plastering and every other branch of work, and especially the decorating, are done by artists.

The alarm bell on Christ Church is out of order. Last night for the hour of 6 o'clock it struck 15, and at 7 o'clock this morning it struck 10.

RAISING MONEY RAPIDLY.

The Contributions for the Inaugural Ball Begun to Come In.

Immediately upon the appointment of the chairman and treasurer of the Finance Committee of the inauguration ceremonies yesterday, the subscriptions to the fund necessary to carry on the preparations began to come in, and by night over $5,000 had been subscribed. It is generally thought that Gen. Schofield, the General of the Army, will be appointed marshal. His peculiar fitness for the position is apparent, and it is thought that as soon as the Executive Committee is appointed he will be named, and the President asked to appoint him.

THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY.

Plans to be Submitted to the Pope—The Celebration.

The board of directors of the new National Catholic University, to be erected near this city, met at the residence of Cardinal Gibbons yesterday. Those present were: The Cardinal, the Rector, Bishop Keane, Archbishop Corrigan, of New York, who was obliged by pressure of other affairs to withdraw some time ago as a director, but is now back again, and Archbishops Williams, of Boston, and Ireland, of Philadelphia; Ireland, of St. Paul, Minn., and Bishops Foley, of Detroit; Spalding, of Peoria, Mary, of Dakota; Flash, of Grand Rapids; Monsignor Farley and Mr. Eugene Kelly, of New York, and Mr. Thomas E. Vagamon, of Washington. Of the other members Rev. Thomas S. Lee is in Europe, and Mr. Michael Jenkins is prevented from attending by sickness in his family.

The report of the committee on the University statutes, the constitution and laws for the establishment and conduct of the University, was read, and approved and adopted. These, as relating to ecclesiastical matters, will be submitted to the Pope for approval and Bishop Keane was commissioned to be their bearer to Rome. He will leave on that mission by the steamer Gasconne from New York, Saturday next, and will be gone four months.

While he is absent Dr. Philip J. Garrigan, D. D., of Springfield diocese, Massachusetts, the vice-rector recently chosen, will have charge of all matters concerning the university, filling the rector's place. He will reside at Rev. Dr. Chapelle, in the city.
The completion of the divinity library of the university was confided to Archbishop Corrigan, chairman, and a committee.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Superintendent Cook Opposes Trustees' Recommendation.

School Trustee Francis recently recommended that the office of Superintendent of Colored Schools be abolished, giving as one of the reasons that this official is the real cause of the recent trouble in the colored High School. At the meeting of the School Board last night a letter from Mr. Cook, Superintendent of Colored Schools, was read. Mr. Cook said in his letter that he regarded the office of Superintendent of Colored Schools in Washington and Georgetown as belonging to the colored people, created for their benefit, and absolutely necessary to the success of their schools; therefore, in his opinion, while separate schools for white and colored children are maintained, the distinct office of superintendent should be preserved.
The letter, with Dr. Francis' report, was referred to the High School Committee.

THE PAST A BLANK.

A Man Returns After an Absence of Months and Remembers Nothing.

ALBION, N. Y., Nov. 14.—Benjamin F. Van Camp, ex-sheriff of Orleans County, who suddenly disappeared last summer on account of financial embarrassment, has returned to his home at Carlton Station. He says he remembers nothing of leaving home or of his wanderings. He spent most of the time in Canada.
Judgments to the amount of $20,000 have been entered against him, and his farms are now advertised for sale. It was thought by his family that he had committed suicide. Van Camp is short about $45,000 in his accounts as executor of Amos Kelsey's estate and proceedings had been commenced to compel him to account when he left home. He has been one of the leading financial men in his town.

Amusement Notes.

The full repertoire of the Coquelle-Hadley season is as follows: Monday, Mme. de Girardin's one-act play, from which Mr. Bouffault adapted "Kerry." "La Jode-Fall" Four two monologues recited by M. Coquelle and Mollereux—"Les Presences-Alleluia." On Tuesday night Mme. Hadley makes her debut, playing the role she created in Paris and played for nearly 300 nights en suite in "La Maitre de Forgerie" ("The Force Master"). Wednesday both artists appear together as "Anibal and Clarinda" in Emile Angere's remarkable play, written in verse, "L'Aventurier," from which Robertson adapted the English play "Home! Oh, Home!" Thursday and for this night only, will be presented the reigning Paris sensation, "Les Surprises du Divorce." In New York, Boston and Montreal the public went fairly wild over the entirely original and extremely ludicrous farce-comedy. In New York the English version, called "The Lottery of Love," made a hit at Daly's. On Friday night both M. Coquelle and Mme. Hadley will appear in "Frou-Frou." At the matinee on Saturday both artists will appear in "Camille," and on Saturday night both artists appear in "Frou-Frou."
